Subject: To Jake Delhomme - Hello from your #1 Fan

Hi Jake,

I hope you are having a great day. I am attaching a poem that I wrote that I hope you will enjoy. I love the Carolina Panthers and these last years have been through alot of difficult times and challenging situations but watching my favorite team ever and cheering for you and the Panthers has brought me great joy and I think you are the best! I love your enthusiasm and you are energetic like I am! I love your SunCom commercials and hope to get a Jakephone. I am a single mother and have lived in the Charlotte-Matthews area since I was a teenager so it's great to have you and the Panthers in Charlotte. I watch all your games on TV but have not had the opportunity to see a game at the stadium and that would be awesome and I would love the opportunity to meet you and I would love to cook you a wonderful dinner because I am a great cook and a wonderful housekeeper and love to decorate my home. I know since you are from Louisiana that you love Southern cooking and Cajun style food and I can cook anything so I'd love for you to email me back or call me would be the best at [redacted] and my address is [redacted] and this is an invitation for a nice homecooked dinner with a wonderful woman that would love to meet you. Just for your info, I am 5'8", weigh 125 lbs and have brown hair and brown eyes and I am Hungarian and am a good woman ready for good things to happen in my life and meeting you would be awesome! I also faxed a resume to the Human Resources department and spoke with Susan [redacted] and would love the opportunity to work for the Carolina Panthers anywhere! I am very efficient and organized, have 6 years of a banking career, strong secretarial and administrative skills and lots of marketing experience. I am professional, strong computer skills and great with people and would love to work for the Carolina Panthers, so if you could help me about that I would appreciate it. God bless you, Jake. I look forward to hearing from you and hope to meet you soon! Debbie Voit
